Mrs Cable was the richest woman in the city, but she is also a busybody. She always wanted to know what everybody is doing. When she needs something she rings a bell and a servant came. One day a truck stops in front of her house and three men got out. They are carrying a large box. Mrs. Cable sees this and told her servant, Sam, to go and see what the men were doing. Sam goes out and spoke to the men but they don't tell him. When he came back Mrs. Cable is very angry with him. Next she sent George to find out. He didn't want to go at first and Mrs. Cable told him he is afraid. When he goes out the men ignored him when he said good morning. He tries again but this time the big man hit him in the stomach and he fell on the ground. Mrs. Cable sees all this and came on to the street. The men take her by the arms and put her in the box.

The 1990s

In January 1990, I was at primary school and in January 2000, I was at university! I left primary school in September 1990 and went to a secondary school five kilometres from my house. I took the bus every day at 7.30am and didn't get home until 5 o'clock in the evening. What a difficult life!

My family bought a satellite TV in 1990 and a new video the next year. In 1994, my brother bought a computer and I got a bicycle the same year.

I left my school in 1997 but decided not to go to university like most people: instead, I went walking in France alone for three months and then drove around America for three months with my brother. For the first six months of 1998, I got a job in a health food shop and then went to university in October 1998 in Wales.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with a green address bar. The page title is "Objects of desire | TED". The address bar shows a secure connection to https://www.ted.com/playlists/61/objects_of_desire. The browser's bookmark bar contains various Polish-language shortcuts like "Aplikacje", "Google", "Astro", "foto", "Zakupy", "Instytucje", "Newsy", "Rozrywka", "Praca", "Komp", "mapy", and "Inne zakładki".

The video player displays a man with grey hair and glasses, wearing a dark suit, speaking at a podium. The background is dark with red vertical light bars. The video has Polish subtitles: "Z zawodu jestem filozofem". On the right side of the video, there are two interactive buttons: "Add to list" (with a plus icon) and "Like" (with a heart icon).

The video player controls at the bottom include a progress bar (0:00 to 15:26), buttons for "Pause", "Skip", and "Volume", and a playlist description: "Playlist: playing of 12", "Denis Dutton: A Darwinian theory of beauty", and "Polish translation by Kinga Garnette-Skorupska, reviewed by Marcin Kasiak. More talks in Polish". To the right of the controls are buttons for "Subtitles", "Options", and "FullScreen".

A dark grey cookie consent banner is at the bottom of the page, stating: "By continuing to browse the site, you're agreeing to TED's use of cookies. Learn more in our privacy policy." with a close button (X).

Let's Begin...

4000 years ago, the ancient Sumerians made a surprising discovery: if they scraped the bark off a particular kind of tree and ate it, their pain disappeared. Little did they know that what they'd found was destined to influence the future course of medicine. Krishna Sudhir traces the history of aspirin.
